

Memorandum of Understanding between the University of Pennsylvania and Rutgers-Camden Community College

Purpose of the Memorandum of Understanding

1. The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to establish a framework for cooperation and collaboration between the University of Pennsylvania and Rutgers-Camden Community College in the areas of research, education, and community service.

2. The parties to this Memorandum of Understanding are the University of Pennsylvania and Rutgers-Camden Community College.

- 3. The parties agree to cooperate and collaborate in the areas of research, education, and community service.
- 4. The parties agree to share information and resources related to their respective fields of study.
- 5. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective facilities and equipment.
- 6. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective personnel.

7. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective databases and electronic resources.

8. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective archives and historical records.

9. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective libraries and collections.

10. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective journals and publications.

11. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective websites and online resources.

12. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective social media accounts.

13. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective newsletters and magazines.

14. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective press releases and news stories.

15. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective press kits and media guides.

16. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective press conferences and news events.

17. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective press releases and news stories.

18. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective press kits and media guides.

19. The parties agree to provide each other with access to their respective press conferences and news events.