

College of Health and Human Services
 Hospitality Management Department
 Approval for Restaurant and Food Service Management (RFSV) Minor
 (For Non-Hospitality Management Majors Only)

Student's Name: _____ Date: _____ ID#@ _____
 Address: _____
 Local Phone: _____ IUP Email: _____
 Student's Major: _____ GPA: _____ Anticipated Graduation: _____
 Student Signature _____

Maj

130 – Food Service Sanitation (1cr.)

Applications of Food Production and Service (4cr.)
HOSP 402 – Beverage Management (3cr.)
HOSP 403 – Wine and Wine Services (3cr.)
HOSP 413 – Restaurant Food Production and Service (4cr.)

Note to Major Advisors: Minors must be cleared by the HOSP Department for graduation with a minor in Restau(no)-1.96 266.4 1.44 T (or)4

INDIANA UNIVERISTY OF PENNSYLVANIA
DEPARTMENT OF HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT
Minor in Restaurant and Food Service Management (RFSV) – 18 credits

Minor Description:

The Restaurant and Food Service Management Minor prepares students with the skills to be a successful food service manager. This minor prepares students to manage and operate the Allenwood Restaurant by developing skills in food sanitation, food preparation skills, menu planning, front and back of the house operations, and responsible alcohol service.

Learning Objectives:

Upon the completion of this minor students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate proper food handling and sanitation practices.
2. Develop and analyze food service costing and financial statements.
3. Recognize and apply responsible alcohol service.
4. Manage the