

Title: Implementation o
Mid-Western Pennsylvania

Recommendations: A Survey of

Author: Michael J. Pendred II

Dissertation Chair: Dr. Joseph F. Marcoline

Dissertation Committee Members: Dr. Robert E. Millward
Dr. Cathy C. Kaufman

The study found five major findings from the analysis of the data. First, based on the years of experience of teachers and their being more comfortable with traditional teaching strategies it was apparent that staffing of schools with experts of the middle level was a concern. Second, the data points out the lack of middle level course work