The motion was made by

1. Proposed Sexual Harassment Policy

Senator Alarcon invited a motion to allow Marlene Joyce permission to speak, if necessary, regarding the sexual harassment policy. The motion was made by Senator Jackson and seconded by Senator Duntley. Motion was APPROVED.

Senator Curey addressed the Senate concerning the Sexual Harassment policy. He reviewed the changes that the committee made in response to the May 1998 Senate meeting. He said that the committee would now like to submit the policy for endorsement by the Senate.

Changes were explained, questions were answered, and suggestions for consideration were made from the floor.

During the sexual harassment policy discussion, a motion was made and seconded to allow Bethann Scullin, News Editor for the PENN, to address the Senate. Motion was APPROVED.
