Prerequisite: EN 202, 210, 211, 212, 213

An introduction to Irish literature since 1800, with particular emphasis on the Literary Revival in the early twentieth century. Key authors include Yeats, Joyce, Synge, O'Casey, Edgeworth, Somerville and Ross, Gregory, Beckett, and Heaney. The development of Irish writing will be examined within the contexts of Irish history, language, culture, and politics.

II. COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Students will emerge with an understanding of Irish literature as a distinct national literature, to be appreciated not only in comparison and contrast to English and American literature, but also in light of the specific nature of Irish history, language, and culture.
2. Students will gain an appreciation not only of the ~~practitioners of the various disciplines~~ ~~the social contexts within which the~~
