LIBERAL STUDIES COURSE APPROVAL FORM

About this form: Use this form only if you wish to have a course included for Liberal Studies credit. The form is intended to assist you in the approval process.

PART II. WHICH LIBERAL STUDIES GOALS WILL YOUR COURSE MEET? Check all that apply and attach an explanation.

All Liberal Studies courses must contribute to at least one of these goals; most will meet more than one. As you check them off, please indicate whether you consider them to be primary or secondary goals of the course. [For example, a history course might assume "historical consciousness" and "acquiring a body of knowledge" as its primary goals, but it might also enhance inquiry skills or literacy or library skills.]

Keep in mind that no single course is expected to shoulder all by itself the

[The body of the form contains numerous horizontal lines for writing, which are mostly obscured by heavy black scanning artifacts.]

3. Tape or glue the actual article or xerox copy on a sheet of standard (8 1/2" x 11") paper. Place the page number in the upper right hand

4. On the reverse side of the article sheet, write a brief summary or abstract of the article. The abstract should consist of a single paragraph of no more than 100 words.

5. The last page(s) of your log will be an alphabetical index of the topics covered in your log.

Articles may be collected from newspapers (Christian Science Monitor, NY Times, USA Today, etc.) or magazines (Time, Newsweek, U.S. News and World Report, etc.) The periodicals room of the library will be useful in that regard. Do not collect old articles. The first article in your collection should be dated the first day of class. The news log itself is worth 50 points.

The thematic focus of the news log will be the basis of an oral
