

#16

CONSUMER SERVICES DEPARTMENT
COLLEGE OF HUMAN ECOLOGY

DATE: April 10, 1986

SUBJECT: Change of Name of CS213 to Residential Appliances and Consumer Electronics

TO: Mr. Gary Buterbaugh, Chairperson
Curriculum Committee, B2

The Consumer Services Department requests the change of name of course CS213 from Home Equipment and Consumer Electronics to Residential Appliances and Consumer Electronics. Residential Appliances is a better term for the content of the course. Home Equipment is a broad category that comprises many different pieces of equipment. The word equipment is often misunderstood and most often misused: "Equipment" is vague and often includes other products in the home that are not

MINUTES

Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

December 2, 1986

PRESENT: Bright, Costa, DeFurio, Eisen, Kolb, Lauer, Lipsky, Moyer, Sommer, Steele

ABSENT: Mornaweck Richards

MINUTES: The minutes of December 2, 1986 were changed by adding
the following statement:

Changes in CR 499 and CR 482 were noted and approved.

1986 were approved as corrected.

BUSINESS: 1) Mr. John Cross and Mr. Gary Buterbaugh of the Computer Science Department were present to answer questions concerning Proposal #5, CO 355 Computer Graphics. They explained that there is sufficient computer equipment on campus but there would be a need to upgrade equipment on a regular basis.
Also, it is possible that other departments could offer computer graphics courses in the future

2) On a DeFurio/Eisan motion the following

Prior to formal approval of the "Liberal Studies

Colleges/departments and/or other constituencies will be invited to open meetings with the Curriculum Committee in order to register concerns, objections or recommendations. Following this input, the Curriculum Committee will take formal action relative to the "Liberal Studies Proposal" and transmit this action to the University Senate.

3) On a DeFurio/Lipsky motion, Proposal #5, CO 355 Computer Graphics was unanimously approved as a new course.

4) On a DeFurio/Costa motion, Proposal #6, CH 340