

Course Deletion

1. [Illegible text]

2. [Illegible text]

3. [Illegible text]

4. [Illegible text]

5. [Illegible text]

6. [Illegible text]

7. [Illegible text]

Program Deletion*

1. [Illegible text]

2. [Illegible text]

3. [Illegible text]

4. [Illegible text]

Applied Social Research Track
1. Description of Curriculum Change

SO 231 (Contemporary Social Problems) and PS 354 (Metropolitan Problems) will be added as required courses in the

2. Old and New Comparison

Bachelor of Arts --- Sociology/Applied Social Research Track
(Old)

Bachelor of Arts --- Sociology/Applied Social Research Track
(New)

Liberal Studies: As outlined in Liberal Studies section

53-55

Liberal Studies: As outlined in Liberal Studies section

53-55

3. Rationale for Curriculum Change

(3a) SO 339 (The Community) is no longer being offered. For this reason, two courses (SO 231 and PS 354) were chosen from the controlled electives list in the Community Development substantive area as replacements for the requirement. The rationale for now requiring two courses is that SO 231 is broad in course content, while PS 354 is specialized and not sociological enough to be the lone requirement. Together, the two complement each other in providing a sociological understanding of community issues. (3b) Responding to the additions of SO 231 and SO 428 into the Juvenile Delinquency substantive area, many of the children processed by the Major: Required Courses.

* Interpersonal Sociology should be SO 193 (not SO 471) since the course number for interning was changed

Interpersonal and Family Sociology substantive areas: